

Economy Group Lays Trap for the Senate

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
WASHINGTON (AP)—The self-styled House "economy party"—both members of it—laid a legislative ambush today for the Senate.

Reps. H. R. Gross of Iowa and Clare E. Hoffman of Michigan are aiming at a $30,000 garage paid job and what they suspect is a Senate plot for some retroactive travel funds.

Gross and Hoffman, both Republicans, are members of an exclusive group which they generally call "the economy party." They pride themselves on detecting legislative jokers and on up-setting some of the plans of House leaders.

They currently are upset over two Senate amendments to the annual congressional appropriation bill. They would:

1. Provide $30,000 to paint the ceiling of the underground legislative garage used for automobiles of senators and representatives. It is on the Senate side of Capitol Hill.

2. Retroactively repeal a 1960 curb on senatorial traveling.

The bill carrying the two amendments is awaiting House disposition. Unless Gross or Hoffman objects, it probably will be sent to a Senate-House conference this week, but not until one of the two gets some assurance that the House will have a chance to vote on the amendments.

Normally, the House accepts Senate amendments dealing with what are called "housekeeping items." That is part of the traditional comity between the two branches.

"I don't care about comity," Gross told a reporter. "I want to know why it will cost 30,000 to paint the ceiling of that garage. That's a lot of paint and a lot of money."

The travel curb which the Senate sought to dispose of by an amendment which was not even debated in that body became effective July 12, 1960, when last year's legislative appropriation bill was signed. Its effect was to prohibit senators from making trips between Washington and their home states on official committee assignments and at committee expense. The amendment would kill it retroactively to July 12, 1960.

Apparently on the theory that the ban would be repealed, some senators have, within the past year, continued making trips and charging them against committee funds. But Senate officials have refused to pay the vouchers because of the 1960 restriction. There's a law against it.

"So, now they propose to repeal it retroactively," Gross said, "so they can collect their money. I think we should take a close look at it."

Associations Seek New Dams in State

YELLVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The newly-formed Buffalo Dams Association is mapping an all-out campaign to get two new federal dams on the Buffalo River.

The Buffalo, a tributary of the White River, does not have any dams now. The association, organized last week, will try to get one built at Lone Rock, three miles upstream from the junction with the White, and at Gilbert, just above the Highway 65 bridge in Searcy County.

Representatives from five counties make up the group. They will work with Rep. J. W. Trimble D-Ark., and other congressmen and Army Engineers to get funds to advance plans for the dams.

Trimble has asked Congress for $135,000 in study funds, and he is proposing that the dams be designed with a "pump-back" feature in which water is used twice to produce power.

He said such a feature would make the dams economically justifiable.

Line Rock already has been authorized as a flood control project, but backers want both dams built as multi-purpose installations to combine flood control with power and recreational facilities.

Congress Gives JFK Power to Call Reserves

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress today gave President Kennedy full authority to put one-quarter of a million reservists into uniform and add 12-months to military enlistments and active duty tours.

The House voted overwhelming approval of the emergency resolution, previously passed by the Senate. This sent it to the White House six days after Kennedy called for an immediate defense buildup to deter or win any fight for Berlin and to meet Communist threats elsewhere in the world.

The resolution specifically empowers the President to call on active duty for one year up to 250,000 ready reservists as individuals or in units. It also authorizes extended training periods for all of the 2,440,000 members of the ready reserve.

The 3,253 billion required to pay for the added fighting strength and 207.6 million to start a civil defense shelter program, are contained in a separate measure.

Airliners Plagued by Difficulties

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Airliners from coast to coast and from Massachusetts to Puerto Rico were plagued this weekend in a series of unrelated landing and takeoff difficulties that bruised nothing but some schedules.

The lone casualty was a 20-year-old girl who fainted after leaving a plane that had caught fire on landing.

In all, seven airliners with a total of about 600 passengers were affected.

A short circuit in a landing gear set off a fire aboard a Mohawk Airlines Convair shortly before it landed at Worcester, Mass., airport Sunday. Louise McBride, a Boston University student, fainted on leaving the plane.

In Portland, Ore., fire broke out in the landing gear of a Northwest Airlines DC7C as it took off from Portland International Airport Sunday night.

A fire warning in one engine caused the pilot to apply brakes to stop the takeoff, and the heat generated by the stop was believed to have set off the landing gear fire. The original fire warning was false.

In New York, a Pan American DC8 jet from Paris skidded off a runway at New York International Airport Saturday, shortly after an Eastern Airlines DC8 was forced to circle the field for three hours while crew members jostled a stuck nosewheel.

In San Juan, Puerto Rico, a Pan American jetliner from New York with a capacity load of 174 managed a safe landing Saturday after reporting that its hydraulic brakes were not working. There were two similar incidents in Los Angeles the same day.

An American Airlines Boeing 707 jet from Boston caught fire and blew a tire when its front landing gear collapsed as it touched down at International Airport.

Earlier, crewmen aboard a Trans World Airlines Convair 440 jet were forced to pump water, coffee and milk into the craft's hydraulic system as a makeshift but effective method of lowering a jammed nose gear.

Envoy Reports to Kennedy on Berlin Crisis

WASHINGTON (AP)—John J. McCloy will report to President Kennedy tonight on his discussions last week with Soviet Premier Khrushchev on disarmament and the Berlin crisis.

White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said McCloy, the President's chief adviser on disarmament, would be accompanied to the White House by Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

McCloy completed an urgent flight from Moscow to Washington Sunday night in response to a summons from Kennedy. He brought an informal personal message from the Soviet leader to the U.S. chief executive.

In advance of his meeting with Kennedy, McCloy was scheduled to give Rusk a detailed report on his conversations with Khrushchev.

McCloy already has sent a long cable giving Kennedy a preliminary report on his talks with Khrushchev. This report was forwarded to Kennedy over the weekend at his Hyannis Port, Mass., vacation home.

Salinger declined to give any hint of the tenor of Khrushchev's talks with McCloy. But there have been widespread reports that Khrushchev was disturbed by the firm attitude taken by Kennedy last Tuesday night in his report to the nation on the Berlin crisis and his decision to shore up U.S. armed forces.

Blytheville Prison Farm Hit by Fire

BLYTHERVILLE, Ark. (AP)—A fast-spreading fire destroyed the big Mississippi County Prison Farm Sunday night, but there were no injuries and all 65 prisoners were whisked away to jail in Blytheville and Osceola.

Sheriff William Berryman said cause of the fire was not immediately determined. He said it wrecked the "stockade" or main building, which has four wings. Berryman estimated damage at between 150,000 and 200,000.

The farm is located between Blytheville and Osceola. All its inmates have been found guilty of misdemeanors and virtually all have sentences of under one year.

The prison colony accepts prisoners from other counties and towns in east Arkansas, paying their fines and making the prisoners work out the fines on the farm's cotton, soybean and corn fields.

Berryman said a few outbuildings, such as the superintendent's quarters and a workshop, were not harmed. He said prisoners would be kept in Blytheville and Osceola jails and taken to the fields in trucks daily.

They were taken out of the cell blocks Sunday night as soon as the fire was discovered. They sat on the ground outside in orderly fashion and watched firemen work until trucks arrived to take them to jail. Armed guards stood over them.

Fire companies from Osceola and Blytheville rushed to the farm, but the flames already were out of control when they arrived. Berryman said a few of the prisoners who had been made trustees helped the firemen.

The sheriff said the fire might have been caused by wiring, because he said prisoners told him the lights flickered just before the fire started.

Berryman said the large main building is partially covered by insurance. The farm was constructed by the WPA in the 1930s.

Won't Limit Spending, Says Mr. Faubus

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus hinted today he has no intention of limiting a special fiscal session of the legislature to spending $11.7 million in surplus funds.

"The governor said he has some ideas for additional revenues but he does not want to make them public just now. Instead, he said he hopes the Legislative Council, which begins a series of hearings on money needs Tuesday, will come up with a program acceptable to all, making it unnecessary for him to act."

"I am not just sitting here doing nothing (about the problem) because it is an obligation on the executive branch as well as the legislative," Faubus said. "But I will be perfectly happy if an acceptable program comes from the council or the General Assembly."

Faubus disagreed with proposals to cut salary increases given teachers and state employees by the 1961 Legislature in order to create a construction fund.

Armed with favorable words from Faubus, Perry County Rep. Paul Van Dalsen is expected to renew his pitch for a state income tax withholding plan at a Legislative Council committee meeting today.

Vote on Foreign Aid Not Likely Within a Week

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said today it may be next week before the Senate votes on any major provisions of the foreign aid bill.

Mansfield told a news conference that he expects the Senate to be engaged all day in consideration of a $9,098,614,000 appropriations bill which carries funds for the nation's proposed moon shot.

He said he hopes to obtain passage Tuesday of a 5,161,380,000 measure for the Welfare and Labor departments.

Although the Senate probably will take up the foreign aid program Wednesday, Mansfield said he will suggest that it takes time out to act on a 47-billion defense money bill. For that reason, he said he does not expect any foreign aid votes until next week.

The foreign aid bill carries the five-year authority President Kennedy asked for an $18-billion program of economic development loans.

Britain Asks for Common Market Status

GENEVA (AP)—The European Free Trade Association today urged the merging of its members with the rival Common Market to make one economic unit in Europe embracing about 300 million people.

The EFTA nations are Britain, Norway, Sweden, Austria, Denmark, Switzerland and Portugal, with Finland as an associate member.

The Common Market nations are France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan announced today Britain will apply for membership in the European Common Market.

He told the House of Commons that Britain's actual entry into the six-nation economic group will depend, however, on what arrangements can be made to protect the interests of its partners in the British Commonwealth.

Withholding Plan Renewed by Van Dalsen

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Armed with favorable words from Gov. Orval E. Faubus, Perry County Rep. Paul Van Dalsen will renew his pitch for a state income tax withholding plan at a meeting of an important Legislative Council committee today.

Last week Van Dalsen told the same group—the Revenue and Taxation Committee—that withholding plan would provide a windfall of about 10 million within a year's time.

In a taped broadcast over Little Rock radio station KLRB Sunday night, Van Dalsen spoke favorably of the proposed withholding tax plan, but he did not endorse it.

"The withholding provision would mean a steady income for the state instead of at wide intervals," Faubus said. "It would make it possible to use some of the reserve funds, which are used when the revenue is low."

Faubus said he had been in touch with some members of the Revenue and Taxation Committee about the plan.

Tuesday, the Legislative Council begins hearings to determine how 11.7 million in surplus state funds should be divided among agencies and institutions.

Van Dalsen says his withholding state income tax plan would beef up the 11.7 million figure because taxpayers would make a lump sum payment of present taxes at the same time the withholding tax was being collected.

The Revenue and Taxation Committee could recommend Van Dalsen's plan to the Council, which could, in turn, recommend it to a special session of the legislature which probably will be called next month.

Van Dalsen said another 6 million could be gained by reducing the state's reserve funds. This, coupled with withholding tax revenues and surplus, would provide about 30 million for construction and other needs within a two-year period, he added.

Agreement on Laos Has Failed

GENEVA (AP)—The 14-nation Laotian conference failed to agree today on a formula for withdrawing foreign troops from Laos. The Western powers maintained the Communists were trying to trap them into a declaration of principles divorced from assurance that machinery to enforce a troop pullout would be provided.

After a two-hour meeting the conference deferred further consideration of the question. The delegates agreed to meet again Tuesday afternoon.

The Soviet delegate, Georgi Pashkin, sought conference approval for a declaration saying that foreign troops should be withdrawn within a specified period.

U.S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriman demanded a reference to policing such a promise.

Hold Placed on Second Burglar

Prosecuting Attorney Royce Weisenberger reports that Tommy Earl Alexander, who was involved with James Kennedy Pierce in burglary of Plaza Cafe here, is in custody in Texas as a parole violator.

A "holdover" will be placed with the Texas penitentiary so that he can be brought to trial when his Texas sentence is completed. Pierce was sentenced to three years in the Arkansas penitentiary by Judge Lyle Brown last week.

Local officers are also seeking to get Harold Fulton King, Jr., from Texas officers on a Hempstead county burglary charge.

Hope Woman Named to Nat'l Post

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The 1,600 delegates to the 43rd annual Arkansas American Legion convention wound up their meeting Sunday by electing Lawrence Fisher of Little Rock commander for the next year.

Fisher, who replaces Pete Turner of El Dorado, narrowly edged Thompson Hargraves Jr. of Helena for the top position. Fisher polled 452 votes to 423 for Hargraves.

The convention included speeches by Gov. Orval E. Faubus and Rep. Dale Alford, D-Ark., and was highlighted Saturday night by an address by National Legion Commander William R. Burke of Los Angeles.

Burke said there may be war by the end of the year if Khrushchev isn't bluffing on his Berlin stand or if the U. S. doesn't "surrender" to Russian demands on Berlin.

Burke called for support for President Kennedy in his defense buildup, and called for resumption of nuclear testing because military effectiveness of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization would depend on a tactical nuclear force.

He got a standing ovation when he said, "If the survival of the United States means the destruction of Khrushchev, Castro and communism, then I say let us get on with the task."

Alford Saturday urged an all-out draft call to meet current world crises.

In a resolution adopted Sunday the Arkansas Department of the Legion commended Faubus for setting up the Southwest Seminar on Nuclear Energy at Hot Springs Aug. 31. The resolution urged school superintendents to take their pupils to see exhibits on display at the seminar.

Darrell Harvey of De Queen was elected without opposition as western vice commander Sunday. Tommy Miller of Jonesboro defeated Bill Shaw of West Memphis for vice commander of the eastern division.

O. B. Pence of Conway was elected state chaplain and Ray Henry of Siloam Springs was elected state historian.

Mrs. Leon Reed, Heber Springs, was elected to succeed Mrs. Alice Formby of Hope as president of the auxiliary. Mrs. Formby becomes national executive committee woman.

Mrs. Ester Bowen of Jonesboro was elected eastern division vice president and Mrs. Bernice Eison of Little Rock was elected western vice president.

Chaffee May Be Reopened by the Army

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fort Chaffee, the big Army post near Fort Smith, Ark., which was deactivated in 1959, may be reopened to help handle an Army manpower buildup.

The Army is said to be considering reactivating one or two closed posts but spokesmen said all plans must await final congressional action on President Kennedy's latest defense requests.

Ft. Carson, Colo., is another deactivated camp being considered. It has been used for a variety of purposes since World War II and now is used primarily as headquarters for the 9th Infantry Division.

Chaffee is the only large training center presently not used in the whole Fourth Army area, which includes Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas. It is being used for summer reserve training this year.

The 19th Army Corps (Reserve) is quartered at Chaffee, and 30 officers, 69 enlisted men and 100 civil employees are permanently at the post. During its peak periods Chaffee held up to 14,000 Army personnel and employed about 1,200 civilians.

Some 15,000 reservists will have trained there before summer's end. About 2,500 members of the 142nd field artillery group from units throughout Arkansas are leaving this weekend. And 6,000 men of the Oklahoma 45th National Guard division are moving in.

Training functions at Army's 10 major bases could be expanded to take care of an increased number of draftees.

The Army is making preparations to accelerate the machinery for bringing in the added manpower. It has instructed the Continental Army Headquarters at Ft. Monroe, Va., to take any necessary action in getting ready for examining and inducting more men.

Action Is Promised on Wetlands

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., of the senate commerce committee today promised early action on a bill to step-up acquisition of some of the country's wetlands where ducks breed and live.

Magnuson, after hearing testimony by witnesses favoring the bill, said he might be able to get his committee to act in the next few days.

The measure, passed by the house, would authorize a $200 million, 10-year program aimed at acquiring about 4 1/2 million acres of wetland by the federal government, which now holds about 3 1/2 million acres. States now own 2 million acres. The program contemplates that the states acquire an additional 2 1/2 million acres.

This would provide federal and state control of 12 1/2 million acres of wetlands where the ducks breed and live, the minimum area needed to insure a continued supply of ducks and other wildfowl, sponsors of the bill say.

Sen. Lee Metcalf, D-Mont., and Frank P. Briggs, assistant secretary of the interior, both said that "time is running out" for a program of acquiring these lands.

The present program, financed by receipts from sale of duck stamps, will require about 45 more years, Metcalf said, and by that time much of the area needed probably would be drained or unavailable.

Briggs said the program contemplates that the treasury lend $150 million over the 10-year period and that about $50 million in duck stamp receipts also would be available.

After the 10-year period, he said, 75 per cent of the duck stamps revenues would be used to repay the 150 million advanced by the treasury for the program.

Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., in a statement to the committee, endorsed the proposal. Stuttgart, Ark., he said, is known as the duck capital of the world and "we in Arkansas appreciate and

Death Sentence Is Appealed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The death sentence of Clarence Stewart, 21-year-old Negro convicted in the slaying death of a white North Little Rock storekeeper, has been appealed to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Stewart's attorney said Pulaski Circuit Court conviction should be reversed on grounds that Negroes are systematically excluded from jury panels.

Stewart was sentenced in the death of William N. Caldwell on Jan. 8, 1959. The Arkansas Supreme Court upheld the conviction.

The state court was asked today to send Stewart's records to the U. S. court for review.

No Limitations on Property Tax

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Attorney General's office ruled today that there is no statute of limitations on the recovery of property taxes paid through error.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Russell Morton issued the opinion after Guachita County Clerk Powell Gammell said that two persons had paid taxes on the same piece of property since 1927 and that one of them has asked a refund.

Morton said a refund could be made if the claimant can satisfy the county judge that he was the county judge that he was

Nations Seem Divided Over Tunisia Issue

By A. I. GOLDBERG

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The 46 Asian-African members of the United Nations appeared divided today over whether to press for a special session of the U.N. General Assembly to take up the French-Tunisian impasse over the Bizerte naval base.

A number of countries from Asia and Africa were reported reluctant to support Liberia's call for a special August session. The group called a closed-door meeting this afternoon.

There was considerable doubt the 10 new African nations who belong to the French Community would go along with the proposal. The goal of those seeking a special assembly is to brand France an aggressor against Tunisia and to force the French out of their Mediterranean naval and air base at Bizerte.

Turkey, Japan, the Philippines and several other Asian members of the bloc were reported dubious of the advantage of a special assembly unless new violence erupts in Tunisia.

If the bloc unanimously supports the proposal, a special assembly is virtually certain. It convenes the 99-nation body and the 9-nation Soviet bloc is expected to support the move. So are Yugoslavia and Cuba.

Assembly President Frederick H. Boland reportedly received word in Dublin to be ready to return to New York at once if the members decide to place the Tunisian crisis before the assembly.

Liberian Ambassador Nathan Barnes announced he would seek support for special assembly debate on Tunisia after the Security Council failed Saturday to take any action on Tunisia's aggression charges.

The council issued a cease-fire call July 22 to stop the fighting between French and Tunisian troops around Bizerte base and in the Sahara south of Tunis. The council also called on all troops to return to positions they held before fighting flared July 19.

Tunisia has accused France of continuing aggression and of refusing to pull back her troops in Bizerte. France is demanding guarantees that her communication lines with the base and between its units will be safeguarded.

Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld who visited Tunisia last week at President Habib Bourguiba's request, told the council he had evidence France

Tex., have been visiting his fiancée, Miss Judy Kaye Wright, and her parents, Dr. and Mrs. George Wright.

Over the weekend Miss Carolyn Sue Norman of Little Rock visited Mr. and Mrs. R. T. White.

The Rev. and Mrs. Billy Gentry of Little Rock have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gentry.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilson and daughters of Bayne, La., are visiting Mrs. L. A. Keith in Hope and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Wilson in Palmos.

Husband Believes
Fighting a Sign of Love

BY HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My husband was an only child. Worshipping parents protected him from life, watching over him like a babe in arms. Result? He's never grown up, still has tantrums, sulks and wants everything his own way, even though we've been married 24 years and have four children. When I say it's worse, he says it's black. To keep peace I keep quiet. Now, because I won't fight he claims I don't love him. What can you do with a man like that? — Worried Wife

Dear Helen: Your husband reasons like an adolescent. He's guarding you into resuming the fights only to bolster his ego. Instead of remaining silent, calmly discuss your differences. Set him an example as you would one of your children, by being tactful and understanding but firm. Encourage him to pull with you, not apart. It will take patience but, having survived 24 years of contention, you evidently possess plenty.

Dear Helen: You are the only one to whom I can turn. I love a really nice boy and he does me. Last year I gave birth to his child. His parents refused to consent to our marrying. I had our baby in another state and put it out for adoption, though it almost killed us to do this. Now, a boy I once went with has asked my hand in marriage. Even though he knows everything he worships the ground I walk on. But, I still love my baby's father. If people would only give us a chance we could work things out. Should I wait, hoping this happens, or marry the boy I don't love? — L.

Dear L.: To marry a boy you didn't love would be unfair to both of you. Why push fate by marrying anyone just now? You've weathered this first big character-testing experience. Give yourself a chance to mature. Your thinking will be very different in a few short years. If it's security you seek, get a job instead of a husband. Learn to stand on your own feet. Put heart in your work. Make a pact with yourself to settle for nothing short of the best in life. By so doing, you will attract only the best.

Dear Helen: I went with a boy who gave me his ring. We gradually drifted apart. There was never an open break, so I had no opportunity to return the ring. I see him occasionally because he is related to my brother-in-law. We speak and consider one another friends, but I don't want his ring and don't know how to give it back without embarrassing us both. Tell me what to do.—Question Mark.

Dear Question: The right way is always the simplest. Take the ring and return it to the boy. You had violated the cease-fire and assumed functions on Tunisian soil "normally reserved to a sovereign state."

A Short Short Story

THE HERO
By LESTER ARNO

The battle was almost over. The Indians, made bold by the number of wagons already burning, were coming closer and closer to the beleaguered pioneers. It would soon be over unless—

A bugle sounded the charge of the United States cavalry and just above the rise swept the troop, guidons and flag on high, sabers flashing in the sun—Big Jim Badger astride his famous white horse, Racer, leading the charge.

Now the Indians fled and the remaining pioneers of the wagon train set up a cheer. Big Jim dismounted and looked steadily at the wreckage, the vanishing Indians, the pitiful handful of pioneers and, finally at his horse.

He did not speak. Instead, he thoughtfully patted the horse's flank, stroked his mane and gentled him. Racer nodded his head.

The director yelled "Cut!" and Big Jim raised his hand to his throbbing temple.

The motion picture company would soon return to Hollywood, the outdoor scenes on "location" having been finished. It had been a trying week. The first two days it had rained without stopping. On the third day in a hand-to-hand encounter with the heavy, Big Jim had misjudged his distance and had struck the other actor a very hard blow. The fourth day the rain came once more, and today they had shot the rescue scene over and over again. Big Jim had led the first charge at 7:30 that morning. It was now 4:30 in the afternoon.

Big Jim was tired. And his nose was red.

He started to sneeze.

"What's the matter?" asked the director. "Caught cold?"

"Yeah," said Big Jim. "This confounded weather. I can't seem to get used to it."

"Better see a doctor, Jim!" the director advised. "We can't afford many more delays."

"Oh, I'll be all right," the actor replied. "You just have to wear a cold out."

He kept sneezing, even after he had showered and changed to slacks and a sports shirt. Dinner didn't appeal to him and he was miserable even though the night-poker game he so enjoyed with the extras and his stand-in. Big Jim couldn't seem to stop sneezing.

One month later, America's leading cowboy sat in the doctor's office. The doctor was smiling a professional smile.

"Today's the day, huh, Doc?" Big Jim drawled.

The doctor nodded and picked up a file of papers.

"We've made exhaustive tests to try to determine the cause, Jim." He tapped the file significantly.

"Never mind the speech, Doc. Give it to me straight. Why can't I get rid of this cold?"

"You haven't been sneezing much during the past several weeks, have you, Jim?"

"I'm not worried about the last couple weeks, Doc. What's got me worried is that I keep sneezin' every time I go out on location. Now let's quit playin' games and get down to cases. What'd you find, Doc?"

The doctor sighed.

"Jim," he began. "This is not going to be easy. But here it is. There's a piece of doggerel, an old rhyme from a forgotten source, that goes:

One white foot, buy a horse;
Two white feet, try a horse;
Three white feet, look well

about him;
Four white feet, do without him.

A bugle sounded the charge.

Big Jim Badger stared at the doctor with utter disbelief. "You mean, Doc—"

The doctor nodded sympathetically.

"Right, Jim. The scratch tests definitely pinpoint your allergy to horses."

Safeway to Feature State Products

K. W. Huntington, Arkansas Division Manager of Safeway Stores Incorporated has announced an all-out promotion of Arkansas products by Safeway during the week of July 30 through Aug. 5th. In addition to featuring outstanding prices on Arkansas produced foods the retail firm is calling attention to the vast quantities of food commodities purchased by Safeway in Arkansas. For example, in 1960 Safeway sold over 30½ million pounds of Arkansas Poultry. This poultry was shipped to hundreds of Safeway stores throughout the country. Safeway, also, is a huge purchaser of Rice which is one of Arkansas' finest products. Safeway customers across the nation purchased nearly two million lb. of this rice.

In 1960 Safeway sold in excess of nine million pounds of Arkansas grown produce, including more than 3,500,000 pounds of peaches alone. Safeway's expert buyers say that Arkansas Produce ranks with the finest in the nation.

When it comes to eggs, Safeway is indeed a volume seller. In 1960 alone 1½ million dozen of eggs were purchased by Arkansas Safeway customers. These eggs are produced in Arkansas by Arkansas producers who must meet rigid quality control standards which means that only the finest eggs reach the customer.

Bread and Dairy Products are all important items to every family — and here again, Arkansas products excel. Safeway customers purchased over $1,500,000 worth of bread baked in Arkansas — Milk, Ice Cream and other Dairy Products totaled over $2,500,000.

Besides the items mentioned above Safeway purchases dozens of products grown, produced or processed in Arkansas, including Beef, Pork, Bottled Beverages, Pickles, Corn Meal and over 100 train carloads of canned foods.

Chattanooga fell to Mobile 2-1, but the Lokouts lost none of their game and a half league lead. Second-place Birmingham bowed to Little Rock 2-1. Nashville slugged Atlanta 14-5 in the first game of a doubleheader, but the Crackers rallied for a 5-4 decision in the nightcap and broke a five-game losing streak.

Little Rock bested Birmingham on a two-run homer by manager Fred Hatfield. The blow came in the fifth inning with catcher Roger McDermott on base and dealer lefty John Seale his seventh loss. Seale was looking for his 11th victory and pitched a six-hitter in a strong but futile effort to get it. Charley Ready went the route for Little Rock and stopped the Barons on eight hits. Consecutive singles in the sixth by Stan Palys, Leo Smith and Don Lunley accounted for the lone Birmingham run.

Americans in Sweep of Track Meets

BY ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

WARSAW (AP) — The United States still ruled the roost today as the world's No. 1 track power, and if the rest of the world is supposed to be catching up, it isn't apparent in Europe.

The United States team, with some of the top stars in the country absent, wound up a three-week, four-meet tour of Europe Sunday by beating Poland.

So the score stands at 4-0 for Coach Jumbo Jim Elliott's operatives as they prepare to head for home Tuesday. The Americans have been engaging in international competition since before the turn of the century, and they have yet to lose a full-scale duel.

They started the current tour by trouncing Russia 13-9, then whipped West Germany and Great Britain, each by 14-6, and wound up with a 13-7 decision over Poland. These were the four strongest track countries in the world outside the United States.

"This was a great team," said Elliott. "Even when we were hit by a series of injuries, the boys never thought of anything but winning."

Poland was figured to be the toughest nut to crack—even more so than the Russians. But Elliott's outfit took the final meet in stride. The point score on a 5-3-2-1 (5-2 for the relays) was 121-91.

"I had hoped we would make it a little closer," said Polish coach Zygmunt Zabierowski. "But you never can get very far against the Americans."

The biggest upset was Max Truex's 30:08.4 victory in the 10,000 meters. Poland was supposed to have this one all sewed up. But Truex turned on the heat on the final two laps and Stan Ozig of Poland couldn't keep up with him. Truex won by about 20 yards.

The battle of behemoths in the discus throw wound up with world record co-holder Edmund Piatkowski of Poland beating Jay Silvester, the big U.S. Army lieutenant. Piatkowski had a 193-11½ throw to a 189-9½ effort by Silvester.

Marian Polk of Poland, Europe's No. 1 sprinter, got even with Frank Budd by winning the 200 meters in 20.8. Budd nipped Polk in the 100 meters.

Hayes Jones won the 110 yard hurdles in 14.3. Jerry Siebert captured the 800 meters in 1:55. John Uelsess took the pole vault with a 14-1 leap, and the 1,600-meter relay team of Ullis Williams, Cliff Cushman, Adolph Plummer and Earl Young scored in 3:16.6 for the other final-day American victories.

Second All Star Game Played Today

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

ROSTON (AP)—Manager Paul Richards, an old hand at strategy, presented a drastically revamped starting lineup as the American League sought to end the National supremacy today in the second 1961 All-Star game.

Richards took advantage of injuries and additions to put in eight right-handed hitters and take dead aim at Fenway Park's beckoning porch in left field.

Bums Slowed Only By All Star Contest

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's a lucky break for the rest of the National League that the Los Angeles Dodgers are required to stop like everyone else for the two-day All-Star game break.

For the Dodgers are rolling in high now like most everyone figured. They wallowed the Pirates 7-3 at Pittsburgh Sunday for their eighth straight victory—all on the road—and their third in a row over the fading defending champions.

This put them a half-game in in San Francisco where he started left-hander Whitey Ford, Richards chose right-hander Jim Bunning of Detroit to open on the mound for his team.

National League Manager Danny Mortenson also settled on a right-hander, although he was undecided between Bob Porkey of Cincinnati and Art Mahaffey of Philadelphia. A sell-out crowd of 33,357 was expected for the 31st game starting at 2 p.m. EST, with NBC radio and TV coverage.

Injuries to New York's lefty hitters Roger Maris and Tony Kubek gave Richards an opportunity to test right-handed theory. He has replaced them with two right-handed hitters, Detroit's Al Kaline in right field and Chicago's Luis Aparicio at shortstop.

"I'm just going with the percentage," he said. "We're going all out to win. We're getting sick and tired of losing."

The All-Star spectacle, once a beautiful summer's dream, has become a nightmare to the American League. In the last 14, the junior circuit has been able to win but four. The National, once behind 12 games to four, now trails only by a 16-14 margin.

The last time Fenway Park was host to an All-Star game, back in 1948, the American League was a 12-6 victor, mainly because of Ted Williams, who crashed two home runs and added a pair of singles for a perfect day at the plate.

Oriole Hurling Holds Yankee Homer Hitters

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baltimore's fine pitching made the Yankees' home run thunder sound as loud as a cat on a rug over the weekend. The Oriole fingers not only dampened the New Yorkers' gunpowder but moved Baltimore back into contention in the American League.

Steve Barber and Mill Pappas, the Orioles' 22-year-old hurlers, and reliever Dick Hall, led Baltimore to a 4-0 and 2-1 doubleheader sweep Sunday that left the league-leading Yanks fuming and their home run kings, Roger Maris (30) and Mickey Mantle (39) fruitless.

The Yanks were lucky that Minnesota's Jack Kralick blitzed runner-up Detroit 4-0 with an eight-hitter that gave the Twins a three-game cleanup over the Tigers.

As the clubs took their two-day All-Star game break, the Yanks were 1½ games in front of Detroit and 8½ ahead of Baltimore.

Cleveland's fourth-place Indians dropped 11½ games off the pace on an 8-6 loss to the pesky Los Angeles Angels. Washington's Benjie Daniels whitewashed Kansas City 4-0 and Boston and Chicago split a doubleheader, the White Sox taking the opener 4-2 and then losing 9-8.

In the National League, the Los Angeles Dodgers pulled a half-game in front of Cincinnati by wallpopping Pittsburgh 7-3 while the Reds split a doubleheader with Chicago, losing 3-2 and winning 5-4. San Francisco's Giants beat Philadelphia 5-2. St. Louis and Milwaukee split a doubleheader. The Cards beat Lew Burdette 5-3 and bowed to Warren Spahn, 3-2, in the 10-inning closer as Spahn scored his 29th major league victory.

Barber (12-8), a lefty, stopped the Yanks cold in the opener with seven hits as Hank Folies' two homers drove in three runs. In the nightcap, Pappas (7-6) had a three-hit shutout for seven innings but required Hall's help in the ninth.

The right-handed reliever came in with Baltimore leading 2-1, the bases loaded and none out. He blazed a called third strike past Cleto Boyer and got pinchhitter Hector Lopez to hit into a game-ending double play.

Yankee manager Ralph Houk, still fuming over the call on Boyer, stormed out of the dugout and jostled plate umpire Ed Hurley. It will cost him a fine and possibly a suspension.

Kralick (10-6) scattered eight Tiger hits in Detroit. He won out on Bob Allison's 23rd homer and Ted Lepcio's sixth. Shortstop Dick McAuliffe suffered a slight nose fracture and outfielder Bubba Morton a sprained left ankle in a crash at first base to add to the wounded Tigers' woes.

Daniels (6-5) pitched his first shutout for Washington in shacking the Athletics at Kansas City with six hits. Gene Green's homer (14th) in the second proved the winner.

The Angels outthumbed Cleveland 5-4 but it was a sixth-inning single by Lee Thomas that poked in the winning run at Los Angeles.

Lefty Frank Baumann (8-8) whipped his old Red Sox mates with a six-hitter and a run-scoring double in the first game. In the second contest, pinchhitter Joe Ginsberg's 10th inning, two-out single gave Boston a split.

17 Deaths in State by Violence

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A hit-run driver struck an unidentified Negro man on U. S. Highway 64 near Ozark Sunday, then dragged his body 140 feet before losing it and leaving the scene of the accident, police said.

The death brought to 17 the number of accidental deaths in Arkansas in the week ended last midnight. Eleven died in traffic accidents, two drowned, and a fire, a fall, a shooting, and a train accident took one life each.

O. D. Boyd, a 46-year-old North Little Rock Negro, was killed instantly when he was struck by a Rock Island train as he lay on the tracks at North Little Rock.

State Police said the hit-run victim was about 22 to 25 years old. They said they were searching for a car or truck with a damaged right front fender. The victim still had not been identified late Sunday.

James E. Knowlton, 21, Negro of Melwood, Ark., was killed Saturday night when his car went out

Sonic Booms to End in State

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Sonic booms which have rattled central and southwest Arkansas for the past 18 months will end today when an Air Force radar bomb scoring detachment goes out of operation here. Supersonic B-52 Hustler jet bombers have been making practice runs on the radar units, which tells Air Force officials if their bombs would have been accurate.
